Knights Templar Conclave.

The Triennial Committee of preparation for the Knights Templar Conclave, to be held in San Francisco next year, have concluded arrangements with the railroad companies for reduced rates on the different lines. Tickets from the Missouri River by either overland route $75 for the round trip. If the tourist goes East by a different road from which he came $25 extra will be charged. Negotiations are at present in progress with roads East of Omaha, and it is thought probable that the fare for the round trip to San Francisco from New York or Boston, will be fixed at $100.

For District Judge.

The Lyon County Times' "Attorney General Murphy wishes to be placed on the Republican ticket as a candidate for District Judge. He would like to have the office and says so plainly, letting his friends know what to do, and not keeping them in suspense by his inability to decide what office he wants. General Murphy has performed the duties of his office to the satisfaction of all, and is entirely competent to fill the honorable position to which he now aspires. The Republicans of the Third Judicial District can do no better than make him their choice."

Another Indictment Against Finlen.

The Storey Grand Jury came into the District Court Saturday afternoon and presented an additional indictment against Roadmaster Miles Finlen, charging him with obtaining money under false pretences. The indictment charges that Finlen drew $78 on account of E. Carter, alleging that he had worked 26 days on the streets during April whereas he had worked but three, and was entitled to but $9. E. Carter, the principal witness in this case, was placed under $500 bonds to appear at the trial.

Gains a Mile.

By actual measurement, made recently by Captain Rock, by order of the Board of County Commissioners, it has been ascertained that Eureka Co. is entitled to receive the tax on an additional mile of the track of the C. P. Railroad Company, running through Eureka, and which has heretofore been overlooked, and assessed by Lander County.

A Popular Judge.

The Democratic Central Committee of Esmeralda county have adopted a resolution requesting District Judge Seawell to again be a candidate for the office which he has so long filled with honor. The resolution has been endorsed by the Lyon County Democratic Committee.

This is the advice the N. Y. Sun gave President Arthur the day before his late veto:

The River and Harbor bill goes to the White House, carrying nearly nineteen millions. It is a dishonest bill. It is a steal. Dip your biggest pen in your blackest ink and write Veto across the face of the steal.

Charles A. Sumner, a Democratic nominee for Congressman at large in California, was a good Republican till 1865. That was the year when he flopped over to the Democrats, being defeated in Nevada for the Republican nomination for Congress.

John R. Bradley, son of the late Governor Bradley, is a warm supporter of Matt Canavan, for the Democratic Gubernatorial nomination. With John Bradley, Major Dennis and Ben Fitch for him, Canavan ought to have the Elko delegation.

Henry George will return to America next month.

The S. F. Report, of last Saturday, has this personal note:

Major J. W. Summerhays, of the Eighth Infantry, who has been stationed at Angel Island for the past two years, left for Camp Halleck (Nev.) on Tuesday last, and will take the position of Quartermaster and Commissary at the latter post. Major Summerhays and Mrs. Summerhays entertained delightfully during their stay at Angel Island, and they will be missed by many friends and acquaintances. Halleck is a pleasant post, distant only twelve miles from the Central Pacific railroad, and enjoys the felicity of a daily mail.

The editor of the Elko Independent has been booked for a reception and banquet by the Tar Brigade. Here is what he says:

The scientists who examined the prehistoric tracks found in the stone quarry at the State Prison, have discovered that what they thought were antediluvian bird tracks is simply a map of Reno, very perfectly executed, showing every street, most of the houses and a section of the Truckee river.

THE CANDIDATE.—The following from the Callaway (Mo.) Gazette, is rather amusing if not altogether true:

"What is a Candidate, Ma? It is a man who runs for office, son. How fast do they run? Some run faster than others; some candidates are always behind in this country—the procession is too fast for them. Is Pa a candidate, Ma? No, son, your father hasn't time to run for office, and besides he wouldn't have one if it were offered him. Well, what makes him go to the 'Lection and vote for them? Because he is a good citizen and wants the candidate of his party elected. Can't I vote sometime? Yes, when you get old enough. Show me a candidate sometime, ma, I want to see what they look like. All right my son—they will be around soon thicker than chinch bugs in the spring time, and you shall see all you want. Will they bite? No, they will kiss you, darling, and the baby, too. Will they kiss you, Ma? Not if I know myself. Well a candidate must be a funny thing Ma. I wouldn't be one though."

The Virginia Chronicle, in its weekly review of the Comstock mines, says:

Everybody is now looking for something to show up in the Mexican. The ore streak in No. 1 winze, on the 2700 level, continues as strong as ever, the only change seen in it being an occasional variation in dip. At present it appears to be bearing to the east, but on going down on it a few feet further, it may again swing back to the vertical. The deposit contains some strong seams of very rich ore, while between these are streaks of lower grade. The whole constitutes a good milling proposition. It is probable that this vein will reach all the way down to the 2000 level. The water in this section of the mine is being steadily drained out by the drill hole that was run in from the face of the main north drift, and they will soon be able to resume work in the drift and advance it to a point under where the ore is now being followed down in the winze.

A rich farmer and his wife living near Walnut Hill, Ill., after dwelling together in unity for forty years and becoming responsible for no fewer than thirteen children, suddenly came to the surprising conclusion that their tempers were incompatible, and accordingly separated. The wife then brought suit for divorce, which came on for trial recently at Mt. Vernon. The lawyers on both sides during the dinner recess entered into a most creditable agreement to reconcile the aged people, if it were possible, and the Judge cordially offered to assist them. During the afternoon session each made a conciliatory speech, affirming that his client was susceptible to those kindly sentiments which adorn humanity, and the Judge followed with a pathetic admonition. At this point the husband straightened himself in his chair and looked toward his wife; she in turn threw a magnetic glance at him; they both rose, clasped hands, received the congratulations of the court, and in two minutes Mr. and Mrs. Thomas A. Moore were driving toward Walnut Hill at a pace which astonished the family horse.

R. L. Fulton, of the Reno Gazette, was in Carson Sunday. The Tribune would recommend that Mr. F. be nominated for the State Legislature.—Carson Tribune.

TOWN AND COUNTY.

Personal.

Justice J. H. Borman was down from Verdi yesterday.

Bob Graves, of San Francisco, passed through on the overland last night on his way home.

Mr. C. S. Varian leaves for Salt Lake this morning, on a brief visit to his partner, Mr. Dickson.

Yesterday was "steamer day," but many of the wharfinger strollers didn't see many ships come in.

Capt. Mathewson, Deputy U. S. Revenue Collector under Col. Lord, went through to Virginia yesterday morning.

Mr. Arthur Nichols, the tall sycamore of Sacramento, is throwing his shadow among his many Reno friends here today.

Judge Fields of the United States Circuit Court passed through on his way to Carson where he will open session this week.

The Plumas National says: "Mr. E. K. Grove has opened his Photograph Gallery in Reno, and is hard at work. Mr. Grove is a good artist, and well worthy of patronage."

Miss Beckie Prescott arrived home last Saturday evening, after a six weeks' visit in Virginia City and Carson, in order to be present at the commencement of Bishop Whitaker's School for Girls.

For Assessor.

Chas. H. Stoddard announces himself a candidate for Assessor, subject to the decision of the Democratic County Convention. Mr. Stoddard is at present Chief Deputy under Assessor Longley, and the experience he will gain this year will well fit him to discharge the duties of the office. In fact, there is no clerical position in the county that he is not competent now to fill. He is young, apt and active. He is entitled to consideration at the hands of his party, and will make as good a run for the position as any man the Democracy can place on their ticket.

A Fainting Fit.

Yesterday the wife of Mr. George Perkins, the merchant on the corner of Virginia and Second streets, while walking along home with her husband from the Postoffice, when barely convalescent from a severe illness, fainted in front of the White House. She felt the faintness coming on and barely had time to seize her husband's arm and request assistance from a passer-by before the attack seized her. She is recovering slowly.

A Curious Case.

John Richardson, the well known and popular barkeeper of the Pollard House has been troubled with a curious attack of the dumb ague every other day for years past. Although the climate and altitude of Reno would seem to forbid such an ailment, yet John has evidently got it in his bones from some former malarious locality, and is now suffering from his inheritance. It is a curious case.

Failed to Appropriate.

Conkling's party of surveyors returned pected back to Reno last night The party expected to have been gone for six months but owing to the Civil Service bill in Congress making further necessary appropriations, it had to be recalled. E. B. Monroe's party to which Ed. McClellan was attached has been also recalled.

In Business Again.

S. Beamer has again gone into business, and it looked natural to see him around with his dray yesterday. Beamer was Reno's first drayman, starting in 1868. He will attend to business as faithful as of yore. In addition to that he will attend to undertaking, and has a splendid stock of everything in that line in Neale's store.

A Private Picnic.

Doc. Bergman, Mrs. McFarland, Schaefer and Goeggel had a little picnic of their own last Sunday at Verdi and enjoyed the day hugely. Doc. states that the man who had his leg broken at the Dog Valley mill, and the young man whose fingers were cut off lately at Verdi are doing splendidly.

The Pretzel Fruit.

Charley Becker has started all the beer-lovers in town into a perfect agony of joy. He has just imported from San Francisco some of the finest pretzels ever seen in the land. The pretzel is a mysterious fruit, and can be seen at Charley's in full growth.

George's Enterprise.

George Becker has just laid in a fine box of delicious fruit from the pretzel tree. George's many customers are now as happy as clams, and many of them even take a pretzel to bed with them.

The salaries of the county officers and deputies were allowed.

The District Attorney was authorized and instructed to proceed and defend the County Assessor, A. A. Longley, in behalf of Washoe county for the assessment collected from John E. Robinson, suit having been brought by the said J. E. Robinson to recover the assessment, amounting to $275.

It appearing that A. C. McFarlin has taken up two bridges on the Henness Pass road near his place, over the Lake Ditch, it was ordered that he be instructed to replace them immediately and open up the road.

It was also ordered that the $25 heretofore paid by the W. U. Telegraph Co. on the sidewalk built in front of the Marshall block should be hereafter paid to Al. Lindley, who holds the assignment of the account.

The reports of the Sheriff, Clerk and Auditor were received and placed on file.

The resignation of J. Porter, of Washoe Road District, was presented and placed on file. It was ordered that the resignation be accepted and that J. J. Jackson be appointed Road Supervisor to fill the unexpired term upon his filing with the Board a good and sufficient bond for $500.

The petitions of Mrs. Negley, Mrs. Cook and Mrs. Clancy, signed by property taxpayers, were ordered placed on file and the following respective amounts allowed: Mrs. Clancy, $10; Mrs. Cook, $10; Mrs. Negley, $10.

A petition of taxpayers of Roop county asking an appropriation of $300, to be applied towards a new road building through Forty-nine Canyon, was allowed.

The resignation of C. A. Cole, Road Supervisor of West Franktown Road District, was read and placed on file. The resignation was granted and Sanford M. Place appointed to fill the vacancy for the unexpired term.

It was ordered that the County Clerk advertise for bids for the burial of the indigent dead for one year, commencing September 1, 1882, and ending September 1, 1883.

Z. Bryon was awarded the contract for building a woodshed in the rear of the Court House at a price of $50.

J. J. Jackson, Road Supervisor of Washoe Road District, was allowed $75 out of the General Road Fund to be applied on the said road.

Result of an Open Switch.

Yesterday afternoon, owing to an open switch, the noon train from Virginia City, drawn by the engine Dayton, ran off the track on to the ties for about fifteen or twenty feet. Quite a crowd gathered around, who awaited with evident interest the beginning of the operation of getting the engine and tender on the track again. Old "'48" finally came along, and the crowd were nonplussed to see the whole accident remedied by means of two pieces of firewood from the tender. The old yard engine hitched on behind and drew the heavy machines on to the track again as easy as a Reno girl can draw a young man to her lips.

For Clerk.

P. B. Comstock announces himself a candidate for Clerk, subject to the decision of the Republican County Convention. Mr. Comstock is familiar with the duties of that office, having served one term, and should he be nominated and elected would undoubtedly endeavor to give the best of satisfaction to the people, taking even more pride in it than he did when he occupied the position before.

A SPIN AROUND RENO.

A Visit to the State Insane Asylum—Taking in Several Fine Ranches.

[Ed. Cor. Battle Mountain Messenger.]

Keeping sacred our promise with Governor Kinkead, on our arrival back to Reno we sought conveyance to visit our new State Insane Asylum, situated a short distance below town, near the banks of the beautiful Truckee river. Instead, however, of telephoning for a carriage to be sent, Mr. Coats of the Coats' Hotel, in order to be more independent, suggested a better plan, and we were soon both seated in a fine carriage, which rolled down to the Asylum behind two noble steeds in a few minutes.

The grounds upon which the Asylum buildings and improvements are, is a raised plat of 305 acres and about 30 feet above the bed of the river, giving a fine view of the town and surrounding country. No healthier and more desirable locality could well be made for such an institution.

Dr. Dawson, under whose care is the Asylum, being absent, we learned the following facts of Mr. Martin, the bookkeeper and conductor of affairs about the premises.

There were 148 patients brought over from California at the starting of the institution, the first of last July; 6 have been discharged and 4 new ones received, making the present number, 146; of which 32 are females, under the management of Mrs. Walker, as matron. The main building is 232 feet long by 125 wide, and 3 stories high, with a capacity to accommodate 200 patients. There are two dining-rooms on each floor, and as we walked up and through all the several departments of the entire buildings, and about the yards, we were favorably impressed with not only the structure of the premises, but with the present management of the institution The rooms are all well ventilated; excellent spring beds in the sleeping departments; the tables and dining-rooms kept neat and clean, closets and kitchen sweet and healthy, and all food given to the patients, of the wholesomest kind. We saw but one thing lacking to make our Insane Home the best in the land; which is the want of suitable shrubbery and trees for such an institution. But this will in due time be supplied, as it is the intention of the management to, as soon as possible, beautify the grounds by growing trees and creating lawns and flower beds; and to this end the State has secured the one-sixth interest in a water ditch for irrigating purposes.

The Trustees who had charge of selecting the site and contracting for the improvements, and also the contractors who built them, are equally worthy of much credit from the people of Nevada, for having been economical and faithful with the State's money. The State can boast of one of the finest buildings and grounds for our insane on the coast, and for much less cost than is usual to be expended in such cases.

Near the main building is a well and a steam pump, which raises the water into a tank holding 18,000 gallons, 105 feet high, from which tank is a pipe running to a second one in the building, holding 4,000 gallons from which water is carried to all parts when needed. Another fine arrangement we saw for the comfort of inmates, is the machinery and pipes for warming the different apartments in Winter. In the basement is a steam engine to which are attached drums and large pipes, from which small ones are extended up through several rooms, so that a single fireman below can warm the whole institution. We can only say further that our Insane Asylum at Reno is well worth the money it cost; it is a credit to the whole coast, as well as to the projectors and builders. The present management is good and worthy of the approval of all concerned. The patients of course are of different grades of talent and behavior. Some really objects of pity, while others of curiosity and even levity; and while it may be thought an easy task to take the charge of so many unfortunate human beings, it is verily a hard one, and but few can be equal to it. Only in two instances did we meet those who complained of the treatment received from the keepers, which is most remarkable, as it must be known that many have to be confined for their own safety, and that of others; and treated many times in a way, which to patients, and even outsiders, might have the appearance of harsh treatment when it was for the best good. It requires both wisdom and patience to manage a heterogeneous mass of minds racked by insanity; and those who do so manage such an asylum satisfactorily, can't be extolled too highly. Therefore we deem it but just to thus speak in praise of the present management of the Asylum.

BUT THE RANCHES.

We have spoken so lengthy on the subject of the Asylum, that we must be brief on the balance of our letter.

Leaving the Asylum we drove to the old Stone and Gates ranch located in '59, but now owned and occupied by H. Whistler, who has an agreeable family, with whom we dined. This ranch is at the old "Stone and Gates crossing" five miles below Reno, and is a very fine place, crops good, and large growth of shade trees along the drives, orcharding, etc. Adjoining is a farm of 200 acres, well improved, nice lanes and walks among the shade trees, a large bearing orchard, large fields of very stout crops of grain and grass, at the time visited just ready to cut. This belongs to a Miss Crocker, under whose management the finest crops are produced. It was purchased by her brother for two sisters whom he brought from the old country, since which time the brother and one sister have died, leaving the present occupant the sole owner and manager. Leaving this place we crossed the river and went to the ranch owned by Mr. Derby, the great cattle raiser and dealer, well known in Humboldt for shipping cattle from Winnemucca. This ranch contains 540 acres of choice land; has excellent crops of grain and alfalfa; is breeding fine Jersey and Durham stock; and it is a real treat to visit his place and take the drives through the openings among the tall poplars along the way so comfortably shaded.

Leaving this place, we returned to that of Mrs. Savage, the widow of the late Mr. Savage, who located the Savage mine on the Comstock, but Mrs. S. being absent we made but a short stop, but saw a fine farm of 500 acres under good improvement.

From this we rode to town, passing many fine farms and homes, having ridden some 12 miles through a farming neighborhood of great promise, where, 22 years ago, was thought to be but a rocky waste of country.

E. A. Scott.

District Court Items.

The District Court met pursuant to adjournment at 10 o'clock yesterday morning. The following business was transacted:

Parker vs. Moore et al—Demurrer overruled. Defendant allowed until first Monday in September to answer.

Stephens vs. Whistler—Motion to have costs overruled.

Estate of J. J. and Isabella Woodworth, deceased—Order confirming Administrator's report filed.

John Robinson vs. A. Longley—Hearing of demurrer set for 7 P. M. last evening.

In the matter of the estate and guardianship of Louisa Graff, alleged to be insane—Louisa Graff appeared in Court with her attorney, R. H. Lindsay. The petition of Louisa Watson for letters of guardianship came on for hearing, John Bowman appearing for petitioner. Attorney for petitioner dismissed the application for appointment of Mrs. Watson as guardian and asked the appointment of C. S. Martin as guardian of said insane. R. H. Lindsay, on behalf of Louisa Graff, opposing said motion and requesting the appointment of John Sunderland as guardian; evidence was taken for the respective parties and the matter taken under advisement by the Court.

A Nailing Celebration — Property Holders Look Out for Squalls.

Reno is a "nailing" town if her sidewalks are taken into account. From north to south and one end to the other a trip along the sidewalks, reveals only too many nail-heads sadly needing driving down. The other night about the witching hour of eleven, three young ladies returned to their homes from the Good Templars' Lodge, passing down Virginia street towards the bridge. When they arrived in the neighborhood of the sidewalk fronting the property of Messrs. Thos. E. Haydon, C. S. Martin and others, one of the young ladies stubbed her toe against a cruel projecting nail, and staggering forward landed on all fours. It happened, though unfortunately, that another party of Templars were journeying home on the opposite sidewalk, and when they saw the sister stagger and take a tumble, they were staggered too. To make matters worse the two other girls stubbed against perfect crowbars of nails, and in a couple of seconds had turned a couple of flip-flap somersaults into the street. That settled the business, and the young ladies will be hauled up for investigation at the next lodge meeting, all on account of a few nasty nail-heads. Geo. Avery, too, took a circus leap over a nail in the sidewalk in front of the Episcopal Church yesterday, and now vows vengeance—warning every property owner whose sidewalk is not properly nailed down and nail-heads driven in within the requisite time, that he will make complaint, and they will be mulcted in damages and costs.

Strange Cries on the Stilly Air.

Sunday morning about two o'clock a woman's cries were heard coming from the neighborhood of Plaza street near the freight depot, calling out in muffled tones: "Oh! oh! oh! oh-oh!" Then all was silence. Being a quiet Sunday night, it aroused many people, and when the JOURNAL reporter arrived at the square, though everything was still, a dozen or more persons were prospecting around to try to find the cause of the outcry. The investigation was unsuccessful, however, and the unanimous verdict agreed on by the impromptu jury was that the trouble was between a newly married couple who had engaged rooms on the north side of the depot that morning. They had been married that afternoon, and it is strange that a husband should have resorted to blows—if blows they were—so soon.

For Assessor.

Geo. W. Cunningham announces himself a candidate for Assessor, subject to the decision of the Republican County Convention. If Mr. Cunningham should be chosen the JOURNAL is satisfied there would be no Flanaganism about his administration of the office. For many years he was in business in Reno and his reputation stood No. 1. He has always been a good Republican, and should he be nominated would make a good run.

Answered.

The Eureka Leader propounds the following interrogations to us:

If you were not present at the caucus, was not its action submitted to you, and did you not approve it?

Were you not present at a conference held in Washington between Senator Jones, Gov. Kinkead and others, in which a Republican ticket, or at least a portion of it, was agreed upon?

To which we answer to both, No.

All political printing must be paid for in advance.

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL

For Diseases of the Throat and Lungs, such as Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough Bronchitis, Asthma,

AND CONSUMPTION.

The few compositions, which have won the confidence of mankind and become household words, among not only one, but many nations, must have extraordinary virtues. Perhaps no one ever secured so wide a reputation or maintained it so long as AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL. It has been known to the public about forty years, that have won for it a confidence in its virtues, never equalled by any other medicine. It still makes the most effectual cures of Coughs, Colds, Consumption, that can be made by medical skill. Indeed, the CHERRY PECTORAL has really robbed these dangerous diseases of their terrors to a great extent, and given a feeling of immunity from their fatal effects, that is well founded if the remedy be taken in season. Every family should have it in their closet for the ready and prompt relief of its members. Sickness, suffering, and even life is saved by this timely protection. The prudent should not neglect it, and the wise will not. Keep it by you for the protection it affords by its timely use in sudden attacks.
